By an endorsement on the foregoing deed, reciting the lease and mortgage to John Kelso, of 16th September, 1669, and further reciting that the whole interest of Kelso, to the lands, and to the said £300, was since legally come to James Magill, of Ballynesterragh, Esq., and that the same was then wholly and absolutely in him; and further reciting that the said Earl, by his deed bearing date the 4th day of July, 1672, did make over the reversion of the said lands, and the power of redeeming the same, to Pottinger. The Townland of Ballymacarrett continued in possession of the Pottinger family till the year 1779, when they sold it to Harry Yelverton, Esq., then Recorder of Carrickfergus (afterwards Chief Baron of the Irish Exchequer, and raised to the peerage by the title of Viscount Avonmore), for a sum of £18,113 5s, which agreement was afterwards carried into formal execution by a deed of 1st July, 1781, whereby Eldred Pottinger, and Anne, his wife, conveyed to him, “All the town and lands of Ballymacarrett, and the mill and mill lands of Owen Cork, otherwise Owen O’Cork, together with all the tithes, both great and small, coming, growing, arising, and renewing for ever in and out of the same, and all dwelling-houses, &c., woods, underwoods, mills, mill-dams, and mill-ponds, waters, water-courses, strands, shores, fishings, fisheries, fishing-places, wrecks, waifs, estrays, deodands, forfeitures, easements, profits, advantages, emoluments, and hereditaments whatsoever, to the said lands and premises, and every part or parcel thereof belonging, or in anywise appertaining.”

By a deed of conveyance, dated 1st July, 1787, Lord Chief Baron Yelverton conveyed the townland of Ballymacarrett and Owen O’Corke mill, in consideration of £25,000, to Arthur, Earl of Donegall, who, by his will, dated 7th August, 1795, devised them to his second son, Lord Spencer Chichester, whose grandson, the Right Honble. Henry Spencer, Baron Templemore, is the present owner.

His rental out of Ballymacarrett amounts to upwards of £1,000 per annum, and is daily increasing; but that represents only a small portion of the present value of the townland, which with, the buildings upon it, was valued in the poor-law rate-books of 1855 at £18,891 10s, which must be considered as a wonderful realisation of the estimate formed of its value in the above will of Sir James Hamilton, dated upwards of 240 years before, that the townland, which only then produced him £4 a year, would eventually be let at a great rent; and the still more extraordinary prophecy contained in it, “that a great part of it might well be taken into the plains of Belfast, and cannot be wanting to that town,” is at present on the eve of complete fulfilment, by the embankments of the Harbour Commissioners, and the formation of the People’s Park, out of the residue of the unreclaimed slob-lands of Ballymacarrett.
